

As an author, one of the things you should consider early in your writing process is what you plan to do with the manuscript once it is completed. Will you publish it as an eBook? A print book? Both?

Whether you plan to distribute your work digitally or in traditional print format, you've got options. We are a growing publisher who offers the following for authors:

- We are selective in the books we will publish.
- Your book joins with a family of high quality book titles; you are not on your own!
- We keep your costs as minimal as possible.
- Author pricing that makes it cost-effective for you to buy copies of your own book.
- Distribution options you will not get from self-publishing companies.
- Active searching for opportunities to help you sell books.
- Active development of retail relationships.
- Registration with the Library of Congress to help protect your copyright.
- Design assistance for your web banner, bookmark, postcard, or any other marketing needs.
- Professional editing that will make your book better than it is already.
- Our marketing efforts to increase your exposure.
- We are partnering with you to bring your book to print. We care about your success.

Our ideal client has a story, vision, process, or literary work that we feel will truly touch the hearts of a unique audience. We want authors who have passion and integrity. We seek to create a family atmosphere in which you feel we are on your side all the way. Whether your manuscript is completed, in-process, or just a spark of excitement in your mind; we can help you on your journey to becoming a published author with a message to share with the world.

Our authors include former professional athletes, Olympians, journalists, business professionals, first-time authors, pastors, professors, and international speakers. We look forward to getting to know you better.

PUBLISHING WITH US

- 1. DO YOU WORK WITH FICTION OR NON-FICTION? Both! We have titles in several genres including: Business, Leadership, Children's Fiction, Young Adult, Christianity, Sports, Military.
- 2. WHO OWNS THE COPYRIGHT? You do. Working with us, you give us the right to publish your work and make it available for sale globally in the language(s) listed in your contract, but you maintain ownership of the material and copyright.
- 3. WILL MY BOOK BE HARDCOVER OR SOFTCOVER? We will discuss with you the best option for your book; including book size and cover options.
- 4. HOW MANY BOOKS MUST I PURCHASE? We require our authors to make an initial purchase of at least 200 copies of their book when it goes live for sale. Your Author's Purchase price is calculated once we know book size and finished page count. We pride ourselves on offering our authors cost-efficient pricing for their own personal copies. We base your pricing on the actual printing and publishing costs, not on the list price of the book. Following your initial order of 200, you can order books in any quantity you like and we will provide you with a discount structure for quantity purchases.
- 5. HOW MUCH MONEY WILL I MAKE ON EACH BOOK? We will determine the best retail list price for your book and/or eBook based on our experience and by assessing other books in your genre and your competition.

For printed books, the wholesale price (for online book sellers like Amazon and for brick and mortar book stores) is a 55% discount from the list price. From there, printing and publishing costs are deducted and the author receives the remainder. Royalties are paid quarterly.

You will be able to order your own author copies to sell through your website or personally if you choose. The price for your author copies will be set once the printing costs are known. There are no royalties paid to you for books you purchase yourself. However, you can sell these books at whatever price you like at your own book signings, speaking engagements, through your own website, etc. and all money from those sales is yours to keep. You will make more money on books you sell yourself! Books are shipped from the U.S. and you pay shipping charges on books you order. Payment is required at the time you place the order.

6. CAN I INCLUDE PICTURES AND GRAPHS IN MY BOOK? Absolutely. Pictures used in printed materials must be of high quality - 300 dpi. If you own the right to publish them, you can include pictures in your book. Color pictures will significantly increase the printing costs for your book, as the entire book will need to be printed on a color press. Unless your book is a children's book, photo book, coffee table book, or cookbook, we recommend strongly using black and white photos, if at all.

7. WHAT IS THE LENGTH OF MY PUBLISHING CONTRACT? The publishing contract will remain in effect for as long as you continue to renew your title with us each year. Title renewal is currently $75 per year. Your initial contract requires a 3-year commitment. We can make no guarantees for number of books you will sell or the amount of money you will make, however, we want to help put you in the best possible position for success. This is why we don't accept every project and we spend the time upfront talking with you so we are both completely sure that our partnership is the right one. After the first 36 months, we will review sales and other factors to ensure we both want to continue working together.

8. WHAT IF I WRITE ANOTHER BOOK? We would respectfully ask that you allow us the first right of refusal on any subsequent manuscripts you write as long as we are representing you on any of your works, but this is merely a request and not required.

9. DO YOU HELP GET ME SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS? With all of our authors, we look for opportunities to sell books. We are not your "agent" from a booking perspective, or a company that will promise to grow your personal business or ministry. However, it is in our best interest to find ways for you to sell books. So as we identify potential opportunities we will pass those along to you. And believe us... we are always looking for how our authors can be successful!

10. WHAT NEXT? HOW MUCH DOES PUBLISHING COST? Once we've approved your manuscript as one that would be a good fit for both of us, we will provide you pricing to get things in motion. The price varies based on book length and other specifics related to your manuscript. We need to see your work before we can provide you a price to bring your book to print. We can say with all confidence that our costs are more than competitive compared to other publishers with self-publishing imprints. Our family atmosphere and genuine care for your well-being extend beyond simply selling books.

PUBLISHING WITH US

We are thrilled that you are thinking of submitting your manuscript to us for publishing consideration. We seek to create the right fit for our skills and services with the right types of books and authors. As such, we don't accept every project, but are definitely willing to have a look at your work to see if we would be the right company to partner with you.

Here are some things we need from you to begin the process.

- 1. SEND A SYNOPSIS OF THE BOOK. What is your book about? Include as many details as you can. Is it fiction or non-fiction? If fiction: What is the plot? Who are the characters? What is the setting? What is the main action? How does it end? Give us as much information as possible so we get the full picture of how the story develops. For non-fiction: What are you writing about? Why? What is your expertise on this subject? How is the book going to be sectioned? What are main chapter titles? We are looking to see if your manuscript has meat to it, and looking for you to clearly define the unique message or spin on a subject that you have to share with the world.
- 2. PROVIDE AUTHOR INFORMATION. We want to know about YOU. Give us a bio of yourself. Who are you? What is your passion for this manuscript?
- 3. DESCRIBE YOUR TARGET AUDIENCE. Who is the person most likely to pick your book off the shelf and read it? And don't answer this with "everybody." Every book is not for every person. We need to know if you have considered who your ideal reader is and if you have a plan for how to reach him or her.
- 4. WHAT IS THE STATUS OF THE MANUSCRIPT? Is the writing completed? In progress? Not even started? What is your estimated completion date for your manuscript? How many words do you anticipate the final product?
- 5. HOW DO YOU PLAN TO PROMOTE YOUR BOOK? Do you have a platform or network within which you plan to drive book sales? Books don't sell themselves. It is hard work for a new author to get his or her work known. We are committed to helping our authors, but we want to work with authors who are also committed to their message because they believe in what they have to say.

Please send the information above along with at least 3 written chapters to us: info@touchpublishingservices.com. If the entire manuscript is completed, you can submit it in Word, Pages, or PDF format.

We look forward to getting to know you better.
